

THE WRITER'S GUIDELINES FOR THE AMERICAN BAPTIST NEWSPAPER

1715 West Chestnut, Louisville, KY 40203

amerbaptistnews@aol.com

502-587-8714

Rev. Dr. Bernard Crayton, Moderator of the General Association of Baptists in Kentucky

Rev. Andrew Baskin, Chairman of the Publishing Board and Editor of the American Baptist Newspaper

The Publishing Board of the General Association of Baptists in Kentucky (GABKY) has “complete charge of the operation and publication of the American Baptist Newspaper.” The Publishing Board reserves the right to refuse publication of any submission deemed inappropriate for the target audience.

Guidelines for Submitted Articles:

- Must be the original written work of the person submitting the article and the submitter must be the sole owner of copyrights of the article. There is no monetary compensation for the submission and publication of any material.
- Should be grammatically correct and not require excessive revisions. (Hint: Spell Check before you submit the article.)
- Must be Word documents typed in a 12 point font that can be easy to read and informative. Non-Word documents may be rejected.
- Must address some issue of interest to present, past or future members of the General Association of Baptists in Kentucky and be consistent with the beliefs of Missionary Baptists.
- That are press releases, sales letter, promotional copy or materials which overtly promote a person, an organization or business in which a member of the Publishing Board has any substantial interest will not be accepted as publishable articles.

By submitting your article, submitters are granting The Publishing Board of the GABKY one-time digital rights to publish their submission on the www.gabky.com website and in informational e-newsletters distributed for the purpose of promoting the newspaper and the website.

Submitters are also allowing visitors to www.gabky.com the right to print their submission for personal use.

Author's Rights and Responsibilities

- The author retains full copyright ownership of their original written materials.
- Submissions must not contain pornographic or adult material, hate or violence-oriented, suggest racial intolerance, advocate against any individual, have insulting, obscene, degrading tone, or profanity.
- Submissions must not contain information on: hacking/cracking content, auto surfing program, advocacy or promotion, bomb creation, support for terrorism/radicalism/religious fanaticism, illicit drugs or drug paraphernalia, steroid use or advocacy, weapon/firearms/ammunition/balisongs/butterfly knives or brass knuckles, or the promotion of hard alcohol/tobacco-related products of prescription drugs.
- Any submission that contains content that may be considered a violation of law, defamatory, libelous, or infringes upon the legal rights of others will not be accepted.
- Submissions may not be personal responses to personal attacks or otherwise considered a "soapbox" presentation.

Adapted from the Writer's Guidelines for the Soul of Louisville.com website